Gentlemen:

As often requested by you in various issues, I am writing you on a suggestion on the type of article I would like to see in a future publication. I refer to a article much needed - on retirement.

There are many of our people approaching retirement, whether to be regular normal retirement or early retirement with no preparations made as to their spare time they will enjoy. I'm sure many will end up in boredom and a feeling of uselessness.

In the Jan. 1977 issue of the Legion Magazine there appeared a Editorial titled "Retirement: What Then?" and a feature story "Second Careers". After reading these both, and thinking of a friend of mine here scheduled to retire soon I felt that he and many more could benefit from such advise. I've enclosed a copy of the above two articles for your reading and hopefully a article for a future issue of the Distillations.

Thank you for your time and consideration given my letter I remain.

Yours sincerely,

G. F. Nicholson
Abing Bank.

Thank you, Mr. Nicholson

On January 20, 1977, G. F. Nicholson, of our Amherstburg plant, did what we so often ask our readers to do — he wrote us a short and eloquent letter suggesting a particular story he would like to see in Distillations. As a result of his letter and the few moments it took him to write it Mr. Nicholson gets his wish. Our thanks go also to Marilyn Dunlop who wrote the article and to Legion Magazine, published by Canvet Publications, Ltd., who gave us permission to reprint.

Anything special you'd like to see in Distillations?
Write us, please, and we'll do our best to oblige.
